Q&A

How late can we keep the party going?

Our opening hours are 11:30 AM until late. At 22:00, we lower the music out of consideration for our neighbors and tent guests. Nevertheless, we are permitted to continue until 01:00. The sound volume can remain slightly higher for those booking the entire tent hotel.

When can we have our wedding?

We welcome wedding parties 1 June to 1 July and 12 August to 31 August. This is to be able to provide you with the best day possible! For parties of 20 people or less, we can accommodate you even during the high season.

How do we pay?

All groups of over 8 people can settle the bill collectively on-site or opt for a 14-day invoice afterward, unless otherwise agreed upon

What are the terms and conditions?

Upon confirmed booking, a deposit of 10,000 SEK is required. In case of cancellation up to 2 months (60 days) before the booked date, the entire deposit will be refunded. For cancellations less than 2 months (60 days) but more than 1 month (30 days) before the booked date, half of the deposit will be refunded. Cancellations within 1 month (30 days) of the booked date will result in the full forfeiture of the deposit. A full refund of the deposit, minus an expedition fee of 2,000 SEK, may be approved under the following circumstances, which were unknown at the time of booking:

- a) Death, illness, or a serious accident affecting yourself, spouse, cohabitant, or family.
- b) Military or civil defense summons.
- c) Any other serious event beyond your control, unforeseeable at the time of booking, making it unreasonable to expect you to adhere to the reservation.

You must provide documentation of your hindrance, such as a certificate from a doctor, authority, or insurance company. The certificate should be sent to us as soon as possible, preferably within a week from the booked date. The cancellation protection fee (2,000 SEK) is non-refundable in case of cancellation. See next page.

Force majeure - Strike, lockout, fire, explosion, pandemic, war, or similar state of war, significant restrictions in deliveries, or other circumstances beyond the supplier's control, entitle the supplier to terminate the agreement without any obligation to pay damages.

Liability for property/negligence - The supplier has no strict liability for property stored in hotel rooms or the supplier's premises. If it is found that the supplier or its employees have acted negligently or recklessly or in any way have been at fault for the loss or damage of property, the supplier is responsible for the lost/damaged property. The supplier is also responsible for property stored in a storage space locked by the supplier, unless the property is of particularly high value (see point 5). The purchaser, on the other hand, is responsible for damage caused to the supplier due to their own negligence or that of their participants.

Dispute - Any dispute between the purchaser and the supplier shall be resolved according to Swedish law applied through simplified arbitration.

Complaint - Complaints must be submitted in writing with a clear reason for the complaint no later than 30 days after the ordered arrangement has been carried out. The purchaser's right to complain is considered forfeited after this period. Complaints should be sent to: Surflogiet AB, Kivra: 556925-5085, 106 31 Stockholm
